Time: 11:45am

Description:

On today's show, Immigration Attorney Jorge Rivera informed our listeners who are in the middle of a residency petition, and who were arrested by immigration when trying to enter the country to hold back on traveling out of the country. The reason for this is they may not know it but they could possibly be facing deportation and immigration will want to arrest them. Therefore they should ask for the immigration record to know what the status is, of course they should have an attorney ask for this and not show up in person or they run the risk of being arrested then and there.

Description:

Today, Immigration Attorney Jorge Rivera let our listeners know that those who are being petitioned by their spouse using the form I-60A, the process usually takes around a year or could be less.
